

Revd Al Lee's Thought for the Week

After a Saturday in the lakes and a walk round Talkin Tarn, I can't help but be amazed at the glory of God's creation. The amazing colours of leaves and red berries is joyful.

Genesis says that God looked at his creation and found it good, isn't God the master of understatement!

